Giddy-Up, Giddy-Up!

Giddy-up, giddy-up, ride to town.
Giddy-up, giddy-up, up and down.
Giddy-up fast,
Giddy up slow,
Giddy-up, giddy-up, giddy-up, whoa!

Elevator Song

Tune: Do Your Ears Hang Low?

Oh, the city is great, and the city is grand,
There are lots of tall buildings on a tiny piece of land,
And we live way up on the 57th floor,
And this is what we do when we go out the door.
We take the elevator up and the elevator down,
take the elevator up, take the elevator down,
Take the elevator up and the elevator down,
And we turn around!

This Little Train

This little train ran up the track.
It went toot, toot, toot,
And then it came back!

Thank You

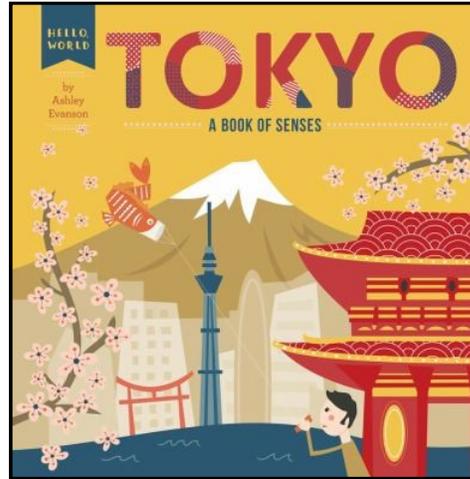

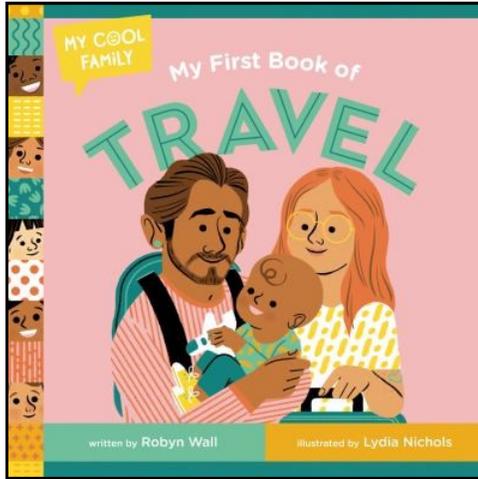

My hands say thank you,
Clap, Clap, Clap!
My feet say thank you,
Tap, Tap, Tap!

Every Child Ready to Read Skill

Reading

Describe what is happening in the book as you read to your baby. This helps build language skills.

Make it fun for your baby and help to show your little that reading can be enjoyable. You can do this by adding different voices to characters or just being expressive.

Reading the same book repeatedly helps your baby learn more by having you point out different parts of the story and asking diverse questions. You can always follow the child's lead if they want to read a different book.

Resource Shoutout

This service provides caregivers with free developmental screenings.

Families can complete an Ages and Stages Questionnaire online. The ASQ helps explore development across the following areas:

Communication, Social-Emotional, Fine Motor, Gross Motor, Cognitive/Problem Solving
