Where is Big Cat?

Tune: Where is Thumbkin?

(Thumbs for big cat, pinkies for little cat)

Where is big cat? / Where is big cat?

Here I am / Here I am,

How are you today sir?

Very well, I thank you.

Roar, roar, roar / roar, roar, roar!

Where is little cat? / Where is little cat?

Meow, meow, meow / meow, meow, meow!

Two Little Lions

Two little lions on a hill,

One named Jack,

One named Jill,

Roar says Jack!

Roar says Jill!

And the two little lions

Rolled down the hill!

Little Lions Rhyme

One little lion, roaring at the zoo.

Called for another: ROAR!

Then there were two.

Two little lions, underneath a tree.

Called for another: ROAR! ROAR!

Then there were three.

Three little lions who heard a distant roar.

Called for another: ROAR! ROAR! ROAR!

Then there were four.

Four little friends who love to play!

Four little lions had a very happy day!

Every Child Ready to Read Skill

Sing

Singing is crucial for early literacy development because it enhances phonological awareness (recognizing and manipulating sounds), vocabulary, and memory skills. Singing to babies is a wonderful way to bond, stimulate their brain, and help them learn. Start with classic nursery rhymes, and don't be afraid to make up songs or add your baby's name to familiar tunes.
